

AUDIE MURPHY CLOCK AT LIBRARY

From the Farmersville Times, April 17, 1997

AUDIE MURPHY CLOCK AT LIBRARY -- This clock, mounted on a piece of beautiful wood with an autographed picture of Audie Murphy on one side and a list of the World War II medals he won on the other, has been presented to the Charles J. Rike Memorial Library in Farmersville by Audie B. Evans Jr. of Houston. The face of the clock is the Great Seal of the United States. Across the top, above the clock face is written, "In Memory of Maj. Audie L. Murphy, June 20, 1924-May 28, 1971." Across the bottom is, "America's Most Decorated Combat Soldier of WWII."
